

CP CONFERENCE

IDENTIFY EARLY INTERVENTION
RESEARCH PRIORITIES
FOR CEREBRAL PALSY

[SEPTEMBER 28, 2024]

Title: Multi-stakeholder Engagement to Identify Early Intervention Research Priorities for Cerebral Palsy

Participation: Attend a one-day conference at Scottish Rite for Children in Dallas, Texas on September 28, 2024. Participate in conference activities and discussions, and complete three surveys. Your participation in this study is voluntary.

Who: Individuals with cerebral palsy 10 years and older, and those who are involved in the care of individuals with cerebral palsy including caregivers, family members, clinicians, researchers and individuals associated with health care or education.

Co-PIs: Angela Shierk, Ph.D., O.T.R.; Heather Roberts, Ph.D., O.T.

Contact information: If you would like more information about this study, contact Angela Shierk, Ph.D., at angela.shierk@tsrh.org or 469-412-7172.

Click here to sign up!

Registration is free.

<https://redcap.link/sagq1ozg>

Resources are available to assist families with transportation, gas, childcare, internet or any other barriers preventing participation.